

Welcome

We manufacture subsystems for rail vehicles and are located in Bremen. With many years of experience in the railway business, we are your ideal partner for both standard and custom solutions. Our expertise and experience provide the perfect basis to ensure your envisaged projects are realised quickly and effectively.

We develop, design and make the following products for you:

Our customers are well-known companies from the rail vehicle industry.